

Transports and Communications Statistics
2014

Turnover value from enterprises operating in the transport sector increased

The turnover from enterprises operating within the transport sector ascended to EUR 10.8 billion in 2014, and recorded a 3.7% increase (+1.6% in 2013).

In railway transport there were increases both in the number of passengers (+1.8%, a total of 128.3 million) and in freight (+10.9%, 10.3 million tons).

Considering road transport, goods transported (146.0 million tons) in heavy vehicles decreased 0.9%. Passengers road transport also had reductions (-13.0%).

The movement of goods in national ports ascended to 80.7 million tons (+3.2%), below the previous year (+15.1%).

Traffic in inland waterways accounted for 18.4 million passengers (-0.4%) and 257.9 thousand passenger cars (-5.0%).

In 2014, a significant increase in passengers in air transport occurred both in transport provided by Portuguese air companies (+6.7%) and in the movement of passengers in national airports (+9.4%).

Concerning communications, the emphasis went to the evolution of voice call traffic origin in mobile network (+10.2%) and television service subscribers (+5.7%), which accounted for 3.4 million.