

Agricultural Statistics

2015

---

2014/2015 agricultural year favorable for most agricultural productions

In 2015 the agricultural activity point out record productions, namely tomato for processing (1.8 million tons, the highest in 30 years), sunflower (24,700 tons, the highest record since 2000) and olive oil (1.19 million hectoliters, the third-largest record of the last hundred years). The production of milk, eggs and meat also increased. The agricultural activity income increased by 3.5%.

---

INE publishes some of the main results on "Agricultural Statistics 2015" publication.

This publication is organized in 14 chapters, each one including a brief analysis of results and the corresponding data tables (Access here).

